"Fifteen Percent"

Phil

Why would you do that to a brand new, very expensive remote?

Claire

Because, I lost my temper and it didn't work, therefore it's useless.

Phil

Well, honey, when it comes to anything electronic you're not exactly the best student.

Claire

I am very smart. I had a 4.0 in college. How about you?

Phil

I was almost that despite my substantial time commitment to cheerleading.

Claire

I thought we agreed not to bring up the cheerleading.

Phil

Cheerleading in my college was cool. The football players were so jealous they wouldn't even let me and my buddies, Trevor, Scottie, and Ling go to their parties. Seriously, Claire, you owe me an apology for breaking that.

Claire

Ok, Phil, I apologize for breaking the world's worst remote That you bought...stupidly.

Phil

Excuse me, but the experts at C Net rated it the best remote. They gave it 3 1/2 mice.

Claire

Wow. I have an idea. Why don't we invite the gang from C Net over and your old buddies from cheerleading and we can have a nerd party.

Phil

Ling is not a nerd. He built his own helicopter. And if he were alive today...

Claire

Let's not talk about Ling. It hurts too much.

Phil

You know what I am gonna do? I am gonna buy a new remote, the same remote. And just to prove how wrong you are I am gonna teach our dumbest friend how to use it in 20 minutes or less.

Claire

Who's our dumbest friend?

Phil

Luke.

Claire

Luke? No, Luke understands electronics. Hailey.

Phil

No.

Claire

Yeah, Hailey. Teach Hailey to use the remote and then I'll apologize.

Phil

Hailey?

Claire

Uh huh.

Phil

Come on.
